About Jim & Christina

Jim and Christina offer a distinctive combination of live music and true-life storytelling. Their versatile performances encompass a range of genres, including standards, pop rock, and country. Whether performing with just a guitar or accompanied by a full band, they captivate audiences by engaging directly, often involving attendees – from corporate leaders to event spectators – in their innovative shows. Their programming can be presented as a concert, theatrical music experience, community entertainment event, or special engagement depending on the venue and audience.

SHOWS INCLUDE:

ECLECTIC

A lively, surprising, and warmly nostalgic collection of songs drawn from different eras and styles. Rather than staying in one musical lane, Jim and Christina take audiences on a journey through the music they love: classic favorites, pop, country, soft rock, standards, and songs that instantly bring back a memory.

THE RAIDERETTE AND THE SINGING COP

A true story. A musical journey. An unforgettable show.

Follow the story of a former Raiderette from Northern California whose unusual job as a “stripper” for a law firm led her to cross paths with a “Singing Cop” in Los Angeles. Through storytelling and music, discover the twists of fate and the songs that brought them together.

The show weaves personal memories with well-known music associated with artists and songwriters audiences immediately recognize, including favorites from the worlds of Glen Campbell, The Eagles, Carole King, and more. The songs do more than entertain — they become signposts in Jim and Christina’s story.
